PACIFIC

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE,

POST STREET, Between Montgomery & Kerney

SAN FRANCISCO,

The importance of a thorough and practical business training for those who contemplate entering the mercantile profession, is too well known to require much comment. Without such knowledge, the young merchant will become involved in many embarrassments which might otherwise be avoided. The youthful aspirant will find himself surrounded by inextricable difficulties, both in seeking a situation, and in the discharge of its duties after employment is obtained. To have received instruction at a mercantile college, endorsed by the leading merchants of the city, is more effective in winning the favor and confidence of a business firm, than all the letters of introduction which friends can give. The maintains a reputation for thoroughness and systematic training, far surpassing that of any other similar institution on the Pacific coast. Most of the leading merchants of this city have employed graduates from this College, and bear testimony to the practical efficiency of the course here prescribed. The system of actual practice embraces all the varied operations of real business. A Ladies' Department has lately been added to this popular institute. This spirit of enterprise cannot fail to draw forth the well-wishes of the public.

Pacific Business College

Address for all information,

VINSONHALER & DE LAGUNA,

A CARD

We the undersigned, merchants and business men of San Francisco, California, are at the present time, employing men who have completed the prescribed course of study at the Pacific Business College, and we take pleasure in stating that we have found them well posted in accountantship and the general principles of business, showing conclusively that they have been subjected to a thorough drill in those important matters, by experienced and competant instructors.

We cheerfully recommend the College as being in our opinion, an institution of intrinsic merit, and well worthy of the confidence and support or the community.

SPRING.

A flush of green is on the bough,
A warm breath panteth in the air,
And in the earth's heart-pulse there
Throbs underneath her breasts of snows;

Life is astir among the woods,
And by the moor, and by the stream,
The year, as from a torpid dream,
Wakes in the sun-shine on the buds:

Wakes up in music as the song
Of wood-bird wild, and loosened rill
More frequent from the windy hill
Comes evening forest aisles along.

Wakes up in beauty as the sheeff
Of woodland pool the gleams receives
Through bright flowers, overbraided leaves,
Of golden sunlighs, golden green.

She sees the outlawed winter stay
Awhile, to gather after him
Snow-robes, frost-crystaled diadem,
And then in soft showers pass away.

She could not love rough winter well,
Yet cannot choose but mourn him now;
So wears awhile on her young brow
His gift—a gleaming icicle.

Then turns her, loving, to the sun,
Upheaves her bosom's swell to his,
And, in the joy of his first kiss,
Forgets far aye that sterner one:

Old winter's pledge from her he reaves—
That icy cold, through glittering spar—
And zones her with a green cymar,
And girdles round her brow with leaves:

The primrose and wood-violet,
He tangles in her shining hair
And teaches elfin breezes fair
To sing her some sweet canzonet.

All promising long summer hours,
When she in his embrace shall lie,
Under the broad dome of bright sky,
On mossy couches starred with flowers.

Till she smiles back again to him
The beauty beaming from his face,
And robed in light glows with the grace
Of Eden-palaced cherubim.

O earth, thy glowing loveliness
Around our very hearts has thrown
An undimmed joyance all its own,
And sunned us o'er with happiness.

THE PRESENT AND FUTURE OF OUR RAILROAD SYSTEM.—In 1836, only thirty-two years ago, there were in the whole United States only about 1,000 miles of railroad in operation; to-day there are 38,321 miles; or, if side tracks and switches were added, over 50,000 miles of single track. In 1850, there were only two railroads, with ninety-five miles of track, in the great State of Illinois; now—eighteen years later—there are at least twenty-five distinct lines, with a total length of 3,300 miles, within the State borders, making Illinois the third State in the Union in respect to the aggregate length of railroad, Pennsylvania having about seven hundred and fifty miles more, and Ohio one hundred miles more. In 1850 Chicago boasted of her first railroad with forty miles of track, laid with strap rail, and altogether a cheap affair compared with the great lines of to-day. Now there are over forty railroads having direct and immediate connections with this city covering at least 7,000 miles.

In February 1852, the population of Chicago was 38,783, and the forty miles of road centering here, earned during the previous year, $174,000. In 1868 the population is estimated at 250,000, and the earnings of the twelve roads centering here—the main lines actually entering the city—$49,000.

These figures tell, better than words can do, the immense strides which our business and population have made in the past few years. Yet the same rate of increase for the next sixteen years would, in 1882, give the State 300 railroads, and Chicago a population of 1,500,000 inhabitants.

Roads now projected will extend northward through the great pine forests of Wisconsin; a great line will connect us with St. Paul, the Red River country, and the Northern Pacific Railroad thro' the unknown regions of Dakota, Montana, Idaho and Oregon; three of our Western lines now point to Omaha, where they will divide the immense trade and travel that in three years will pass over the great $2,600,000 bridge already planned at Omaha, and pour across the continent over the Union Pacific Railroad, while in Iowa they will send out numerous branches through that State and Minnesota; the Mississippi river, already touched at points by roads from this city, at five of which bridges are now built or now building, will be spanned at those and other places by permanent structures, over which business will pass unobstructed to the metropolis; the barrier which the Missouri interposes will in the same way be removed; the lines crossing Northern Missouri will join with the Kansas Pacific route through New Mexico, Arizona and California, and our Southern lines will open up new lands in the corn and fruit regions of Illinois and the growing portions of the Southern States; in short the extent of country from which we shall draw wealth and population will be immensely increased, and every energy that tends to develop it will in turn develop Chicago, which, like a great sieve, is stretched across the streams of eastward and westward bound commerce.—Chicago Tribune.

CHARLES LAMB tells his sad experience, as a warning to young men, in the following language:

The waters have gone over me. But out of the black depths, could I be heard, I would cry out to all those who have set a foot in the perilous flood. Could the youth to whom the flavor of the first wine is delicious as the opening scences of life, or the entering upon some newly discovered paradise, look into my desolation, and be made to understand what a dreary thing it is when he shall feel himself going down a precipice, with open eyes and a passive will, to his destruction, and have no human power to stop it, and yet feel it all the way emanating from himself - to see all godliness emptied out of him, and yet not able to forget a time when it was otherwise; to bear about the piteous spectacle of his own ruin; could he see my feverted eye, feverish with the last night's drinking, and feverishly looking for to-nights repeating of the folly; could he but feel the body of the death out of which I cry hourly with feebler outcry to be delivered, it were enough to make him dash the sparkling beverage to the earth in all the pride of its mantling temptation.

THR FIRST BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES OF THE RULERS OF THE PEOPLE.

1st. And it came to pass, in the last year of the reign of Andy the Accident, who was made ruler by treachery, and shedding of innocent blood, that he became a great abomination and his sayings, and his works were offensive in the sight of the people.

2d. Now when he saw that the scripture would soon be taken from him, and given to another he cast about to see who had found favor in the eyes of the people, that he might turn the hearts of the multitude against him, to destroy him.

3d. And he beheld Ulysses the Silent, a mighty man of war, who had fought the battles of the people, and discomfited the Philistines, the Captain over all the armies of the land, whose fame had gone out to the utmost parts of the earth, him the people loved, and desired to have rule over them when all the days of Andy were accomplished.

4th. Now there was a mighty minister of war, who had succored Ulysses, when there was some distress in the land: he was called Edwin, and his surname was Stanton. Him also the people loved, but Andy hated.

5th. Now the city of Edwin was no mean city, but was mighty in valiant men, and we had sent forth to battle, Captains over hundreds, and over thousands, and over tens of thousands, and horsemen and footmen, and men for the ships of war, insomuch that many marvelled because of the smallness of the city.

6th. Then Andrew Johnson communed with himself, and said, I will lift up the head of Edwin before the people, and Ulysses shall occupy his place, and both shall be destroyed. So he commanded it.

7th. Now Edwin and Ulysses were friends and they took counsel secretly together, and Edwin said: Suffer this thing, I pray thee to be so now, and I will go to my own city and tarry a few days; and so it was.

8th. And when the law-givers, as was their wont, every year went up from all the land to the city of the Rulers, they were wroth because the great statute of their fathers had been set at naught, and said we will not suffer this thing to be. Then restored they each man to his place.

9th. Now when Andy saw that he was mocked of Ulysses, the invulnerable, he was exceedingly wroth, and swore by his master, the Devil, saying: Though Heaven and Earth be moved, these men shall be destroyed, and their places given to others.

10th. Now there was a man named William, who was also mighty to do battle, and whose banners were known through all the Southern coasts, and his troops were mighty marchers; him Andy commanded to march up to be honored alike unto Ulysses.

11th. Then William answered him not, but again sent greeting to his kinsman, John, one of the law givers, and said, suffer not this thing to pass, I beseech thee; and he suffered it not.

12. Then Andy spake to Thomas, who was called by the "Boys," Pap, (for they loved him.) He was a captain over many thousands, a man of valor, and Andy said, come thou and be honored with many honors.

13. But Thomas answered, not so, for when I did battle for the people, and saved the city, and pleased the people, then was I honored, now I have done nothing—neither will I be honored for naught.

14. Then was Andy's anger kindled until it was terrible to behold, and he uttered curses and peradventure was drunken with wine.

15. And he said, these men are stiff-necked, neither will they bend to my will, which is more to me than the salvation of the country. Now will I go straightway to the house of my friend, and find a man who will delight in being my servant, him will I honor.

16. Then he called another Thomas, surnamed Lorenzo, but not of the tribe, nor kindred, nor people of the first; and he was as potter's clay in the hands of his master.

17. And he bowed himself to the ground before Andy, and said, speak lord, for thy servant heareth, and whatsoever thou commandeth that will thy servant do.

18. Then Andy commanded him to go up to the place instead of Edwin and occupy it, and he strove mightily to do the thing.

19. And he communed openly with Edwin, and demanded of him the seals of power, and everything pertaining thereto, but Edwin answered, Not so, but go thou to thy place, and do those things that are required of thee, and he went away sorrowfully, and Edwin shut the door, and tarried many days in his place.

20. But he fasted not, for his friends came daily and ministered unto him.

21. There was then great confusion in the city of the rulers, and running to and fro and men communing everywhere openly, and the magicians sent tidings quickly, and other magicians in many cities gave the tidings to the scribes commonly called editors, who gave them to the people, so the thing was noised throughout the length and breadth of the land.

22d. Then the multitudes and the warriors sent greeting to Edwin, and to the law-givers saying, occupy each man his own place, and none shall do aught against you, but Andy they rebuked.

23d. And, Lo these many days have the law-givers been communing openly, and taking counsel together, in order that Andy may be rebuked, and his place given to another, even before his allotted time be fulfilled, and their record. Behold it shall be written in process of time, in the 2d Book of the Chronicles of the Rulers of the People.

WHITE MAN UNCERTAIN.—The San Antonio (Taxes) Express says that at the last election there the Conservatives sent out fifteen miles and brought in an old citizen to "vote the white man's ticket." The ungrateful man afterwards went and voted the Republican ticket.

THE GOLDEN SHEAF AND THE GOLDEN BARS.

While our country has been famous for its whale fleets, its fishing fleets, its cotton fleets and its fleets of meachantmen throughout the commercial world, but little attention has been paid to an important branch of our commerce that has grown up as if by magic in a comparatively virgin portion of our territory. We refer to the wheat fleets of the Golden State of California. Not satisfied with supplying the world with a large proportion of its metalic currency California has set afloat a fleet of vessels conveying the staff of life to nations whose soils are too barren to produce breadstuffs sufficient to sustain their resident population. Thus can the Golden State claim the honor of wearing a crown intertwining the golden sheaf with her renowned golden bars.

We compile from late data statistics showing that California has at present one of the largest grain fleets in the world hailing from a single port. Such a statement may well excite surprise, yet we believe that facts will justify the assertion. During the year 1867, 223 vesels, mostly laden with full cargoes of wheat, were cleared from the port of San Francisco. Of course those dispached prior to the 1st of July last have all arrived out, as well as many of those cleared subsequently. From the 1st of July, 1867, to February 11, 1868, inclusive, 134 vessels laden with wheat were cleared from the same port, only forty-five of which have been reported as having arrived out, though doubtless some of the unreported have reached their destination.

Of these eighty-nine California wheat cargoes supposed to be afloat, seventy-nine are on their way to Europe and ten (partial cargoes) to New York. Great Britain, of course, has been their best customer. In all, 114 cargoes of wheat have been dispached from San Francisco to that country since the 1st of July last. These cargoes foot up about 5,000,000 bushels, valued at about $6,500,000. At last California advices, one third of these shipments had arrived out.

In addition to wheat, several vessels carried small invoices of flour. The shipments of this article to Europe since the 1st of July last aggregated 26,562 barrels (equal to 82,684 centals of wheat), valued at $195,505. Embraced in the above amount were 10,379 barrels, manifested at $80,200, per General McClellan, which sailed from San Francisco on February 13th. This was probably the most valuable cargo of breadstuffs ever cleared from San Francisco, amounting to about $153,000. Including flour as wheat, the shipment to Europe from July 1, 1867, to the above date, reach nearly 3,030,000 centals, valued at about $6,780,000. Wheat and flour shipments (reduced to wheat) to all ports from July 1st to the above date, amount to 6,972,383 bushels. To make our exports for the current harvest year equal those of last year, we ought to ship during the ensuing four and a half months, 1,012,012 centals of wheat, including flour. On the 11th of February there were ten vessels of 8,549 tons register in port loading flour and wheat. These vessels will carry over 333,000 bushels of wheat.

Thus can California not only supply a large portion of the population of the earth with jingling pocket money, but with solid food for their empty stomachs. —New York Herald, March 13th.

WHILE Noah was planting his vineyard, the devil came to him and said, "What are you doing here?" Noah replied, "Planting a vineyard." "What is the use of a vineyard?" inquired the devil. Noah replied, "Its fruit, whether fresh or dry (grapes or raisins), is sweet and good, and its wine gladdens the heart. "Let us work on shares," says the devil. "Agreed," says Noah. Now, what does the devil do? He brings a lamb, a lion, a hog and a monkey, sacrifices them and mingles the blood with the soil. Therefore, if a man eats only the fruit of the vineyard, he is as innocent and nice as a lamb; if he drinks wine, he thinks himself a lion when he is not, and falls into mischief; if he drinks habitually, he becomes as selfish and unmannerly as a hog; if he gets drunk, he jabbers and jumps about and is silly and nasty, like a monkey.

WHEN we consider what an incongruous amount of stuff is taken into the stomach at a modern luxurous dinner, we ought not to be surprised that this organ is frequently the seat of severe trouble. Soup, fish, flesh, oil, vinegar, pastry, confectionary, ice-cream, nuts, fruits, vegetables, wines, and numberless other minor ingredients, of conflicting chemical qualities, are among the materials "thrown in." Stir these things all up in a vessel together, and who of us would not sicken at the appearance and odor? Yet at a modern dinner it is a common thing to have all these hetrogeneous substances crammed into the human stomach, there to foment and generate those vicious and pernicious gases, that cause disease. Truly, "man is fearfully and wonderfully made." Violent exercise after eating, large draughts of cold water when the body is heated, and the habit of constant stuffing, will after a time cause chronic inflamation of the stomach.

SURPRISE has often been manifested by philologists at the fact that the word "sack," variously spelled, is found in so many languages. One of the most ingenious explanations is that of Becanus, who said that the dispersion of mankind at the foot of the tower of Babel, everybody took away his valuables in a sack, the most indispensable article for a long journey and that no one forgot the name of the thing which was all in all to him.

THE COTTON CULTURE IN UTAH.—The Dixie Times of the 18th, says: "At St. Joseph, upper settlement on the Muddy, there was grown last season 14,000 pounds of clear lint cotton, produced by twenty-three men; also, 2,000 bushels of wheat, some corn and oats, with (the) usual amount of vegetables. Bro. Thomas Day raised 500 pounds ginned cotton from one acre."

AN ADVENTURE WITH A BOA-CONSTRICTOR.—After an inspection of the scaly monster, duly cared for in his chest and swathed in blankets, Mr. R. became the possessor of the wished-for prize, and as the steamer for Civita Vecchia, by which he intended to reach Rome, lay at her moorings not far from the trade from Brazil, the chest and contents were soon transferred, and Mr. R. and his prize soon after started. On arriving at Civita Vecchia, Mr. R's position as an agent of the government made the transfer of himself and luggage from the steamer to the railway of Rome a matter of little delay, and in the due course of traveling, he found himself at the gates of Rome. Leaving his servant in charge of his general luggage, Mr. R. started in a hired carrage with his Brazilian prize for his residence in the Via, and on his arrival, with the assistance of the coachman of the vehicle, he conveyed the chest and contents to his room, where he was left for the first time in quiet possession of his purchase. He dragged the chest into the middle of the chamber, and after having fastened the door to fear of interruption and unlocked the chest, and peeping into the folds of the blanket, he contemplated with eager satisfaction the movements of the huge reptile. But while he looked and wondered at its vast girth, its huge folds wreathing one within another, suddenly the head appeared, and whether from the long confinement, the shaking it had received, or feeling the incipient pangs hunger—longing for a feast of chicken or tender rabbit—with one sharp hiss the creature glided from his coverings into the chamber. Mr. R. watched with delight and pleasure not to be imagined—except by such an enthusiast—the graceful movements of the beautiful creature, as, now running along the flooring of the room at full length, and again throwing its coils around the furniture, it seemed to inspect each and every article separately whilst its every movement was power, yet horrible in its grace. Mr. R. at last observed that the serpent, leaving its movements among the furniture of the room, suddenly turned, and in a moment was across the appartment, and reared itself up and confronted him—its head opposite to his, and its eyes glaring horribly into his own. It flashed upon him in an instant that the reptile had possibly been kept without food while on board, and that hunger pressing it on, he would be the boa's first victim. He stood transfixed, but for a moment, while the prespiration burst from his forehead; and his lonely situation, with the chamber door secured, and his frightful chance of a terrible death rose instantly to him. But that one moment only he paused, then threw himself on the snake and cluched it by the neck with a grasp such as only despair and horror could give. In that one moment we may faintly imagine, as is said with drowning persons, he lived his life over again, and years were comprised within the retrospective glance of a second. In an instant the coils of the serpent were around his waist, he felt himself lost; but his presence of mind was not wholly gone and he perceived that the tail of the serpent was in front. He tore the fold backward, and with nervous despair held it off with the other arm; then dragging himself away from the folds that were loosened he dashed the serpent within the chest and violently closing it, threw himself, now breathless and horror struck, upon the lid. Here he sat not daring to move, fearing if he did so the struggle would be renewed and nothing would save him. By degrees, as he become composed, he found that he could reach a chair, and with that he drew forward another; these he placed upon the chest, quickly adding other portions of furniture. He then rushed to the door, unlocked it, and shouted for help. His servant had but then arrived with his effects, and and other help was at hand, so in a short time they approached the chest to remove the reptile into safer quarters. With assistance came a desire to see how fared the snake. They cautiously lifted the lid; the captive did not stir. They touched the clammy folds, no corresponding writhing was seen. In fine the serpent was dead—killed by the convulsive clutch with which Mr. R. in his horror, in the struggle for dear life, had seized it.

WHAT THE PRESIDENT'S COUNSEL THINK OF HIS CHANCES.—Washington, March 15.—It is known positively that some of the President's counsel were both greatly surprised and very much discouraged by the temper of the Senate regarding the application of continuance. It appears that Mr. Johnson and those immediately around him had great confidence that enough Republicans would go with the Democrats to secure all the time asked. Up to Friday evening he credited the stories that quite a number of Republican Senators would indirectly do all in their power to defeat impeachment; but after the action of the Senate was made known to him, he lost hope and became despondent.

A Washington correspondent of the New York Sun, under date of of March 16th, says: Jerry Black states to-day very freely that he has no hope of acquittal of the President, and that he so informed him yesterday. Whether Mr. Johnson will resign or see the matter, through is not yet determined; but if he takes the advice of nearly all his counselors, he will resign as soon as the Senate orders that the trial shall proceed without further delay.

THE MARRIAGE SERVICE.—Sir John Bowing, the British embassador to China, who, by the way, wrote "Watchman, tell us of the night," as well as many other charming pieces of church psalmody, is said to be a very eccentric man. On one occasion he was animadverting upon the "wickedness," as he expressed it, of marriage service as prescribed by the Church of England. "Look at it," said he; "with this ring I thee wed, that's sorcery; with my body I thee worship, that's idolatry; and with all my worldly goods I thee endow, that,s a lie."

E. B. BOUST.

PERISHED IN THE SNOW.—On Thursday April 9th, Mr. A. R. Woods, formerly of Meadow Lake, but who had been residing at Virginia City for the past winter, left Cisco in company with a young man named Noyes and a Chinaman for Meadow Lake. At the time of their leaving Cisco it was snowing, and Mr. Woods was advised not to attempt to make the trip, but his family being at Meadow Lake he disregarded the warning. The party proceeded as far as the saw mill near the head of Rattlesnake Canyon where Mr. Woods became exhausted and was unable to proceed further. The Chinaman, we are told, made several unsuccessful attempts to carry Woods on to the Enterprise mill, going ahead to break the trail and returning would pack the exhausted man as far as possible, until finally he gave out.—Young Noyes then attempted to reach the mill, and it appers lost his way when near the house, where his cries were heard by the inmates who turned out and rescued the boy and Chinaman, but were unable to find Mr. Woods until the next day when he was found beneath the snow, dead. The citizens of Meadow Lake on hearing of the terrible fate of Col. Woods, turned out en masse and conveyed his remains to his family on Monday. He was buried on Tuesday last, followed to his resting place by the citizens of Meadow Lake. Mr. Woods was an Irishman by birth but has been in this country for many years. He leaves a wife and daughter to mourn his sad fate. He was a man of generous impulses and was beloved by all who could appreciate integrity and sterling worth.

BIG CAVES.—On Saturday last about the same minute two large caves occurred, one in the Waukegan and the other in the Washington claim, both on the west side of town. The cave in the Waukegan smashed up—down—things generally, doing much damage and causing a delay in the active operations of the mine of some days. One of the employees had a most providential escape from instant death for which we, as well as a large portion of our community are thankful; the cave taking him on the top of it a distance of over two hundred feet and resulting in nothing but a pleasant ride. The cave in the Washington was more damaging to the claim but less fearful as regards human life: about fifty tons of dirt falling from the banks, filled up the sluices, mashed the pipes, pipe-horses and tools, etc., to such an extent as to necessitate a new rig throughout. However, these things are not without their benefits, as the dirt falling will be easier washed and consequently larger yields be the result.

DIDN'T STRIKE IT.—We learn that the shaft sunk by the Dutch Flat Company reached the bed rock on Saturday last without having struck blue gravel, for which they were sinking. This about settles the matter so far as that company is concerned, unless, indeed, they should elect to drift for the lead. Many of our most experienced miners are of the opinion that the lead runs up the ridge from Bear river to a point near Nary Red, a distance of some three miles. It is a settled fact that the mill owned by the Messrs. King, a short distance below town, is paying large dividends, but the amount we are not able to say. We do hope that some of those owning claims will strike the lead sufficiently rich to justify the erection of mills upon the ground, otherwise, all of us had better strike our tents, for the future of the place will have departed with the failure of the gravel lead, and our harps will be hung upon the willows—of Squire's Canyon.

THE EXHIBITION.—The complimentary benefit tendered to Miss Julia Paccaud promises to be well attended, as we hear of many who have signified their intention of going from this place on Monday and Tuesday evenings next. From the programmes, we can safely promise those who attend the exhibition a variety of pieces likely to please all who are partial to good music and good representations of moral and intellectual pieces. Should the weather continue favorable we predict a large attendance, and from the material selected to appear no fear need be entertained of a break-down.

RETURNED.—The jolly landlord of the Dutch Flat Hotel made his reappearance here on Thursday morning after an absence of nearly two weeks, during which time he has been luxuriating under the balmy sky of the Southern portion of the State, where he has purchased a farm, and will doubtless hereafter live as becometh a good citizen under his own vine and fig-tree with none to make him afraid. That's a good fix to be in, shouldn't object to about a thousand acres of land ourself.

THE annual salary of the postmaster at Van Buren, Maine, in the northern part of the State, is two dollars.

THE SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—The attendance at the School exhibition on last Saturday evening was large, notwithstanding the horrid condition of the streets and the weather. The exercises were of a very engaging nature, charmingly rendered, and received with those general outgushings of applause which actors of maturer growth find it so difficult to win from an audience. The chosen few whom actual genius has placed in the front ranks of the profession seldom receive such happy plaudits as greeted our little ones on the auspicious occasion, and which enabled them to play their best and to put on histrionic airs without limit, quite humorous and terrible by turns, as the case required.—It is difficult, perhaps, for unappreciated professionals, who go about playing their best, at a salary which barely enables them to live, to understand the charms of such infantile mimicry of their profession, but audiences composed of happy families witnessing the performances of their delighted darlings could let them into the secret. Everybody's darling spoke a piece, sung a song or strutted in imitation of some real or imaginary character of renown. All acquitted themselves in the most engaging manner possible for young folks, many exceeded the most sanguine expectations of their parents and friends, and not a few shone like little stars in the theatrical heaven.

With the above notice ends our commendation of the exhibition; we could not say more, and are not willing to say less; the children really deserve credit for the manner in which they acquitted themselves, many showing talent, and nearly all displaying an aptibility truly astonishing. We, however, take this occasion to enter our protest against the practice of exhibitions by the scholars of the Public School. The system of our public schools is not designed to the end of raising members to the theatrical profession, and much valuable time is wasted from useful studies by the teachers and others who desire to see publicly paraded their course of instruction in the mimic world. A few whose natural abilities tend that way acquire a taste for such things which operate in their neglecting the more useful branches of their studies, and confine themselves to pieces destined for the stage, when not one in fifty ever arrive at a position above that of a third rate supernumary of a well regulated theater. Confine the children to their legitimate studies, and if a thirst for public applause is actually necessary to the advancement of the pupil, make it such as the student can exercise by the workings of his own brain. Create an honorable emulation in the minds of the scholars for originality and depth of thought, purity of diction, and forcibleness of expression, and the good will prove more lasting than all exhibitions ever witnessed. The boys and girls of the school will become useful members of society, acquitting themselves of their various duties with credit, and reflect honor to their preceptors. Otherwise you open a way for applause which they are unable to command and finally, becoming discouraged sink to degradation and misery.

REDUCTION OF FREIGHTS.—The business men of Nevada and Grass Valley held a meeting at the latter place on the night of the 10th instant for the purpose of adopting measures to secure the shipment of freight at less prices than those charged by the railroad. They propose doing this by entering into a contract with parties below and having their freight shipped by way of Marysville. Whether they succeeded or not is yet a matter of doubt. The Grass Valley National says that some sixty three business men have signed the pledge to patronize the Marysville route. We doubt, however, whether a majority will do so. The railrood company will certainly not allow freight teams to compete with them to any considerable extent. The time too, is rapidly approaching when the railroad can and will reduce rates both upon passengers and freights, and we are confident so soon as the Company can do it with safety it will be done.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—The copartnership of Bean & Meek, publishers of the Nevada Gazette, has been dissolved, and the Gazette will hereafter be published and edited by Messrs. E. F Bean & Thomas B. Merry. Mr. Merry has had considerable experience as a journalist and will doubtless make the Gazette and of the best of papers. We welcome him as a neighbor, and commend him to the kind consideration of Union party of the loyal county in which he has made his home.

FIRE.—The cry of fire yesterday morning rather accelerated the rising of many of our citizens who were aroused at rather an early hour. The alarm was caused by the roof taking fire from the stove-pipe in the old bath house at the foot of Main street, and at present occupied by a Chinawoman. By the timely application of a few buckets of water the fire was extinguished and everything goes on as usual. We hear that Mr. Runkle is deserving of great credit for his efforts in arresting the progress of the flames as well as notifying the people of their danger.

ELECTION IN SAN JOSE.—The municipal election which took place in San Jose on the 13th instant, resulted in the election of the entire Republican ticket with the exception of the Superintendent of Public Schools. The majorities ranged from four to eighty.

CORRECTION—CEMETERY MATTERS.

GOLD RUN, April 15, 1868.

MR. EDITOR:—It seems there is a misunderstanding in regard to the application of the proceeds of the concert to be given at this place on the 20th and 21st inst. For the benefit of those concerned we would state that the proceeds of both evenings are to go to Miss Julia Paccaud, and no one else. Some one has been kind (?) enough to circulate a report that Miss Paccaud was to receive a benefit on Monday evening and the proceeds of Tuesday evening was to be applied to the completion of the Gold Run cemetery fence; this is totally unfounded. The fence which encloses our departed citizens is completed and paid for, and our efforts on this occasion are for the living temple, not the worn out structure which lies "mouldering in the grave." And by the way. Mr. Editor, it is with pleasure we extend the hospitalities of our cemetery to your community—and if necessary will see you all decently interred, when life's fitful fever is past. We cordially invite the citizens of the "Flat" to attend the Concert on the 20th and 21st inst., and guarantee that none shall go away dissatisfied either with the disposition of the funds or the excellence of the entertainment. A FRIEND.

FIRE AT GOLD RUN.—On Wednesday last a fire was discovered around the stove-pipe of a house back of Noise's barber shop, in Gold Run, but was discovered and extinguished in time to prevent a general conflagration. And on Thursday the saloon of Paul Webber was discovered to be on fire, by Mr. Sanderson, through whose exertions the town was saved from being laid in ashes. This one, too, was caused by a defective stove-pipe.

TO BE EXECUTED.—The Virginia Territorial Enterprise says the execution of John Millean will take place on Friday the 24th instant. The subject has been reported hanged several times and the scenes of the execution related, but it seems that no hanging has yet occurred. It is said that he keeps a strict account of the number of days he has to live, and does not appear at all affected by the near approach of the fatal Friday which is to be his last day in this world.

GOOD FOR CROCKER.—The Humboldt Register in noticing the return of Jno. C. Fall to Unionville, Nevada, says:

Gov. Fall made his appearance among us again on Sunday last, after a short absence in California, looking much younger and handsomer in his new clothes than when he left. The Gov. went away a case-hardened skeptic on the subject of the early approach of the railroad, but is now ready to believe anything that he may hear short of laying a track to the moon, and were that feat possible, he thinks Charley Crocker just the man to whom the contract should be let.

IT is an unlucky thing to have an epithet fixed upon one. Whether deserved or not, it hangs remorselessly.—Alta.

True. The Alta will probably never get rid of the name "Granny" that has been fastened on it.—Call.

You are both in the same boat, only more so. The Call will always be known by the sobriquet of a "pint of pea-nuts.

THE Social Circle will have its next meeting at the residence of W. H. Kruger on next Friday evening, April 24th. The meeting appointed for last evening did not take place on account of the inclemency of the weather. All are cordially invited to attend.

WE learn that the arrangments for the masquerade ball are progressing nicely. The gentleman having it in hand has sent below for the necessary paraphernalia. It will take place in about three weeks.

LABORERS WANTED.—At the meeting of the Labor Employment Exchange it was stated that the Central Pacific Railroad want five thousand additional hands immediately, on the other side of the Sierras, and would board and lodge them and give thirty dollars per month, in gold; and if endorsed by any known parties or by a society the company would pass them over their road, free, on their way to work.

IN making some excavations recently near the castle of Crevecœur, near Borigues in Belgium, the workmen discovered mines in which were canvass bags filled with gunpowder. They are supposed to have been placed there by the troops of Henry II. of France, when they besieged the town in 1554. The articles were in a good state of preservation.

THE total shipment of bullion from this city and Gold Hill, says the Virginia Enterprise, during the past week was 7,900 pounds, $218,159. This is a marked improvement on the shipments of the previous week.

IMPROVEMENTS IN STOCKTON.—The Independent says during 1868, the aggregate value of private buildings erected in that city was over $200,000, and the buildings throughout the county fail $72,000 short of reaching the sum.

Mr. H. G. Parker Indian Agent for Nevada, has recently had constructed a large flat-bottomed boat, which he designs rigging with a set of sails and a center-board and employ it in the navigation of Pyramid Lake.

THE Athens Government has ordered two iron-clads in England, at a cost of £100,000; also another to be launched this year, at Trieste. The King has ordered 1,000 Chassepot rifles.

New York is said to have the largest Deaf and Dumb institution in the world. The institution is at Washington Heights—cost half a million of dollars, and has four hundred and forty inmates.

SOME years since, while residing in the city of Providence, we heard much said in Praise of Perry Davis' Pain Killer. We listened incredulously to these testimonials. Well, health failing, as a last resort, the doctors sent us to Minnesota. The winter was intensely cold, and a terrible form of Neuralgia prevailed among the settlers, and we fell into the grasp of the disease, and day and night, for weeks, endured untold agony. Many remedies were tried without avail. One day, however, a stalwart frontiersman entered the room, bearing in his hand a vial partly filled with a reddish liquid. It was some of the Pain Killer. He had bought in California three years before, and had kept it with miserly care until then. Applying it externally and internally gave immediate relief. Since then, we have recommended it successfully in cases that baffled the best medical skill; and, when we see persons reject this remedy, we recall our own experience, and think that the time may come when pain incurable by other agents, may teach them the value of this great discovery.—Home Monthly. c21 1m

HOPE FOR THE AFFLICTED.—In another part of this paper will be found the advertisement of the celebrated Institute established by Dr. J. C. YOUNG, in 1850. In this age of deceit and charlatanism it is a boon to the suffering to point out to them where they are sure of obtaining the wished for relief and cure. Under the care of the skillful Doctor the sick and troubled can divest themselves of their burdens of pain; lay aside their cross, and secure health and happiness. If you are sick or in trouble, do not hesitate. Read the advertisement and follow the advice. Do not forget the number or the manner of directing your letters. Consultation Office, 540, Washington street, San Francisco.

MEDICAL ADVICE.—DR. WM. K. DOHERTY'S Medical and Surgical Institute is becoming a sine qua non to the welfare of our State and health of our citizens; and his rapidly spreading reputation, although it may excite surprise, is but the signal of skill, and follows as the natural result of such a cause. We are personally acquainted with gentlemen who had suffered for years under chronic disease, and who had taken advantage of every available means that promised relief, but without success, until they called upon Dr. Doherty, who, in an incredibly short space of time, has given them entire relief. It is gratifying to announce this fact, because the Dr. is a gentleman who seeks, not by defamation of others to establish his reputation or ruin of another's fame. The Doctor conducts his own Institute in such a manner must be gratifying to all his patients. He examines, advises, and recommends without charge, and the patient, after hearing his terms for treatment, can accept or reject at pleasure. In no case does the Doctor make a charge unless he effects a cure. This he is able to do, because he feels the confidence which long experience has given, and no doubt consolation which appertain to that confidence. Persons afflicted with either acute or chronic disease, would do well to consult the Doctor; at all events, it can do no harm, as for consultation he asks no fee; nor does he insist on obedience to his advice unless the patient places himself under his care. His offices are on Sacramento street, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship office.—News

READ THIS.

New Albany, Ind., March 12, 1867.

For forty years I have been afflicted with costiveness and for the last twenty was compelled daily to resort to injections to secure an evacuation. In December last I commenced the use of Radway's Pills. After taking a few doses my liver, stomach, and bowels were restored to their natural strength and duties. I have now a regular movement once a day, and, although 80 years of age, feel as hearty and strong as I did 40 years ago.

HIGH ENDORSEMENT FROM THE MEDICAL COLLEGE OF PRUSSIA.

DR. RADWAY

Is in receipt of an important official document, signed by the Professors of the Medical College of Breslau, Prussia, embodying the result of an analysis of

RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS.

"The Faculty of the College state in their report that after a careful and minute examination, they have the honor to state that the pills are not only free from every substance injurious to health, but are composed wholly of substances and elements promotive of digestion, and certain at the same time to act favorably upon the nervous system, &c., &c. They state, further, that the injurious rumors set afloat by the Prussian apothecaries originated "in a spirit of trade jealousy excited by the great celebrity attained by the Pills within a very brief period."

Signed on behalf of the College,
DR. PHIL. THEOBALD WERNER,
Director of the Polytechnic Bureau
DR. HESSE, First Assistant.

INDIGESTION!

In cases where natural evacuations are difficult to secure, and a quick discharge is essential, take six of Radway's Pills and pulverize them,—take the pill powder in water or preserves,—in half an hour they will operate. We have known the most distressing pains of Gastritis, Billious Cholic, Inflamations, Congestion, &c., stopped, and the retained irritating humors expelled from the bowels in thirty minutes by this treatment. It is however, better in chronic cases is to take the pills as they are, and let them gradually dissolve in the stomach. These Pills possess in the highests degree cathartic, aperient, tonic, and diaphretic properties. They do not weaken or debilitate the system or any of its organs, and will leave the bowels regular and healthy. They purify and equalize the circulation of the blood. No congestion or inflamation will occur while the system is under their influence. Price 25 cents per box, or 5 boxes for one dollar.

ALL OVER THE WORLD

People of sense and judgment have learned to use

PLANTATION BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, with its symptoms, Headache, Heartburn, Feverish Lips, Bad Breath; Sallow Complexion, etc., can be cured by using PLANTATION BITTERS.

This is the most successful tonic of the age. Young, middle-aged and old are delighted with its effects.

The first trial always has a marked effect.

No change in diet is necessary. Eat all you wish, of the best and most nutritious food.

It is the greatest cure ever known for an overloaded and distressed stomach, which it relieves in a few moments.

We know that we have the best and most popular medicine in the world. We are not afraid to show what it is composed of.

PHYSICIANS ARE COMPELLED TO RECOMMEND IT

CALISAYA BARK has been celebrated for over two hundred years, and was sold during the reign of Louis XVI, King of France for the enormous price of its weight in silver. It is remarkable for Dyspepsia, Fevers, Weakness, Constipation, etc.

CASCARILLA BARK.—For Diarrhœa, Colic and diseases of the stomach and bowels.

DANDELION.—For Inflammation of the Loins, and Dropsical Affections.

CAMOMILE FLOWERS.—For enfeebled digestion.

Another wonderful ingredient, of Spanish origin, imparting beauty to the complexion and brilliancy to the mind, is yet unknown to the commerce of the world, and we withhold its name for the present.

With this recipe before the community, and evidence of effects meeting them on all sides, the success of DR. DRAKE stands founded upon the rock of truth. Almost every family has some cases of suffering which the PLANTATION BITTERS will alleviate and cure.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT

The merits of this Liniment are well known. Its effects are instantaneous, soothing and wonderful.

Cuts, bruises, sprains and swellings are so common and certain to occur in every family, that a bottle of this Liniment is the best investment that can be made.

It is more certain than the doctor—it saves time in sending for the doctor—it is cheaper than the doctor, and should never be dispensed with.

READ THE FOLLCWING:

"I take pleasure in recommending the Mexican Mustang Liniment as a valuable and indispensable article for Sprains, Sores, Scratches or Galls on Horses. Our men have used it for Burns, Bruises, Sores, Rheumatism, etc., and all say it acts like magic."

LYON'S FLEA POWDER.

It is well known that Lyon's genuine Magnetic Powder will perfectly destroy everything in the shape of Fleas, Ticks, Bedbugs, Roaches etc.; that it is perfect poison to the insect tribe but entirely harmless to the human species and domestic animals.

Bedbugs, Ants, Roaches, etc., are in every house. This powder is their natural death. It should be in every cupboard.

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

THE FRIENDS WE LOVE.

Friends whom we love are dearer far
Than wealth, and gold, and jewels are.
We would not change a faithful heart
For all the pride such stores impart;
Nor would we barter one loved smile
For all the scenes that could beguile;
There's not a diamond we should prize
Or covet like those beaming eyes,
Whose depth of sacred truth we've proved,
Which fondly tell us we are loved.
All things of earth from us may sever,
But love and friends last forever.

Hearts which are true are mines of wealth;
Our balm in sickness, our joy in health;
Tongues that will breathe no bitter word,
From whom no malice is ever heard,
And minds which we need never fear
To slander's voice will yield the ear;
Hands which we clasp with faith and trust,
Of souls that, when we're turned to dust,
Shall in their mighty truth arise,
And meet again beyond the skies;
For earthly things console us never,
But love and friendship last forever.

FACTS CONCERNING THE COMSTOCK.—The famous Comstock vein of Nevada has shown, in three miles of length and five to seven hundred feet in depth, the richest deposit of gold and silver in the world of the same extent, and although worked in a wast ful and ruinous manner, has given in five years of working about $100,000,000 worth of ores, from which only about $50,000,000 has been saved, although the manner of working is constantly becoming more perfect. There are in round numbers sixty mills, containing 1,300 stamps, twenty-five furnaces, 1,000 pans, sixty barrels, eighty tubs and 350 separaters or settlers, engaged in reducing the ores of this immense deposit. The yield varies from thirty to fifty dollars per ton on different portions of the vein. Cost of extraction about ten dollars per ton, and of reduction twelve dollars for raw and about twenty-five for roasted. The Sutro Tunnel, three and one-half miles long, will cost over $2,000,000 in gold, but will tap the vein nearly 2,000 feet below the outcrop. The income is estimated to be sufficient to repay the cost the first year after its completion. We took a subterranean trip through the Comstock, while at Washoe, in the fall of '66, and found it to be one of the mighty wonders of the world. You may decend at one point five or six hundred feet, thence proceed half a mile on lode railways, and there take a steam-power passage to the top, in a twinkling.—Rocky Mountain Herald.

ATTACKED BY RATS.—A Toronto paper of March 9th says:

A couple of nights ago a small army of rats, seemingly met together by concert, created no small sensation in the house of a poor woman on Elizabeth street, by a very singular proceeding. The woman was lying in bed asleep, with her two little ones, when she was aroused by the screams of the children. On awakening she was horrified to find the bed fairly covered with rats, while the floor of the room was almost black with them. Her children at her side were screaming wildly, not alone through terror, but through pain also, for the vermin had siezed them by the nose, ears and cheeks, and were rapidly settling themselves down on every part of their faces. Of course, with a mother's instinct, the woman immediately rescued her little ones, while the rats scampered off in all directions and quickly disappeared. The faces of the children were cut and bleeding in several places, and the wounds on the nose of one them were considered so serious that Dr. Lawlor was called in, and in his hands the little ones have been well cared for; and are now doing well. It is supposed that the invasion was caused by the heavy rains that prevailed at the time, which flooding the drains and other places in which rats make their homes, drove them out and forced them to seek food and shelter elsewhere. Had the children been alone, they would have certainly been eaten alive, as the rats were found around them in hundreds, and would shortly attacked their throats, when death would have resulted in a very few minutes.

SOME brave champion comes out against the now obsolete saying that

"Whistling girls and crowing hens Always come to some bad end—" in the following pithy and unmistakable manner:

"Show me a girl who has the hardihood to whistle in these days when everything natural, even to the very hair of her head is at a discount, and I'll show you a girl who can be depended upon; one who will not fail you in time of need, and will give you the true hearty grasp and cordial hand shake, the warm, genuine welcome, no tip of the kid glove and a cold 'how do ye do?' who can brave danger, look toil in the face without shrinking, 'laugh with those that laugh, and weep with those that weep,' as well as whistle with those that whistle; who can, in short, take the world as she finds it, rough and rugged, and not go through life as tho' she was walking on eggs and afraid of cracking a shell, who deals in substance, not in shadow."

INSURANCE CASE.—Judge McFarland rendered a decision yesterday, in the suit of Nevada County against the Pacific Insurance Company. The Court House was insured in the Pacific Company against accidents by fire, and the suit was for the damage sustained by the gas explosion in July last. The explosion was caused by lighting a candle, but the Judge held that it was the gas and not the fire that caused the damage, consequently the company was not liable on the policy. Judgment was therefore rendered against the County for costs. The Supervisors will probably appeal the case to the Supreme Court, but the chances are that Judge McFarland's decision will be sustained. —Nevada Gazette.

MORE SNOBBERY.—It is stated that a grand banquet is to be given soon by the merchants and capitalists of the city, to Anson Burlingame, the man who deserted the service of his own country to enter that of the Emperor of China. For this it is proposed to feast and honor him.—Dispatch.

A BIG STORY.—It is reported that a man living in Watsonville has discovered gold in the margin of Pajoro Valley paying $15 to the pan. It is too rich to be true.

A PRETTY woman is a brilliant poem, full of rhyme, music, sentiment, and all manner of illustrations.

MR. H. T. HELMBOLD:

DEAR SIR:—In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about BUCHU, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used or known to be used, in the various diseases where such inedicate agent would be indicated.

You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgement, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as stated before, every form of BUCHU—the powdered leaves the simple decoction, tincture, fluid extracts; and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Eighteen years experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits, and without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effects on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other proprietary compound of whatever name, or any other Buchu.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

A CARD FROM THE

AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY

Of Waltham, Mass.

This Company beg leave to inform the public that they commenced operations in 1850, and their factory now covers four acres of ground, and has cost more than a million dollars, and employs over 700 operatives. They produce 75,000 Watches a year, and make and sell not less than one-half of all the watches sold in the United States.

The difference between their manufacture and the European, is briefly this: European are made almost entirely by hand, and the result is of necessity a lack of that uniformity, which is indispensable to correct time-keeping. Both the eye and the hand of the most skillful operative must vary. But it is a fact that, except watches of the higher grades, are the product of the cheapest labor of Switzerland and the result is the worthless Ancres, Lepines and so-called Patent Levers—which soon cost more in attempted repairs, than their original cost. Common workmen, boys and women, buy the rough separate parts of these watches from various factories, polish and put them together, and take to the nearest watch merchant, who stamps and engraves them with any name or brand that may be ordered.

How American Watches are made.

The American Waltham Watch is made by no such uncertain process—and by no such incompetent workmen. All the Company's operations, from the reception of the raw materials to the completion of the watch, are carried on under one roof, and under one skillful and competent direction. But the great distinguishing feature of their watches, is the fact that their several parts are all made by the finest, the most perfect and delicate machinery ever brought to the aid of human industry. Every one of the more than a hundred parts of every watch is made by a machine—that infallibly reproduces every succeeding part with the most unvarying accuracy. It was only necessary to make one perfect watch of any particular style and then to adjust the hundred machines necessary to reproduce every part of that watch, and it follows that succeeding watches must be like it.

The Company respectfully submit their watches on their merits only. They claim to make

A Better Article for the Money

by their improved mechanical processes than can be made under the old fashioned handicraft system. They manufacture watches of every grade, from a good, low-priced and substantial article, in solid silver hunting cases, to the finest chronometer; and also ladies' watches in plain gold or the finest enam eled and jeweled cases; but the indispensable requisite of all their watches is that they shall be GOOD TIME-KEEPERS. It should be remembered that, except their single lowest grade named the "Home Watch Company, Boston," ALL watches made by them by a special certificate, and this warrantee is good at all times against the Company or its agents.

ARE FULLY WARRANTED

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH.

Every Man His Own Physician.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS,

AND

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT!

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The Stomach is the great centre which influences the health or disease of the system—Abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, ffiental depression, nervous complaints and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, &c. The Bowels sympathize by Costiveness, Diarrhœa and Dysentery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach, and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum,

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent, to these the Ointment is especially antagonistic, its "modus operandi" is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years' standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions on the Skin.

Arising from a bad state of the blood of chronic biseases, are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative actton of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

Female Complaints.

Whether in the young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation, they are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emollient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Piles,	Sore Legs,
Burns,	Rheumatism,	Sore Breasts,
Chilblains,	Ringworm,	Sore Heads,
Fistula,	Salt Rheum,	Sore Throats,
Gout	Scalds,	Sprains,
Stiff Joints,	Tetter,	Ulcers.

THIS CELEBRATED INSTITUTE

has enjoyed on this coast an uninterrupted success of fourteen years, and has become one of the renowned Hospitals of the age. What the celebrated Lock Hospital is to London, and the no less renowned establishment of Ricord is to Paris, this Institute has become to the Pacific coast. The thousands annually received and cured place it in point of number of patients among the very first of the world, and the success of its treatment ranks it second to none.

PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALES and IRREGULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of health. They insidiously attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive the bloom from the cheek, the lustre from the eye, the strength from the frame; they give to the world puny and diseased offspring, and poison, through successive generations the race of man. The marks can be seen in Scrofula, Consumption, Cripples, the Idiotic, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than those diseases arising from the contamination of Venerial Poison. The mildest forms, by retreating to the blood, hold over the afflicted one, the destruction that is liable at any moment to fall and blight—to utterly destroy—all earthly hopes.

MERCURY, recognized as the most fatal medical enemy to man, combining with the Venereal, doubles its dangers. Those who have been treated with that pernicious mineral poison are not cured; the disease has only assumed a new form.

Do not be satisfied with partial cures that leave the poison to crawl through the system, eating its way into the tissues and organs beneath the apparently smooth surface, to burst out in the future with a virulence that will baffle the effects of medicine, WHEN PERFECT CURES can be obtained by consulting a physician whom long practice and thorough investigation into the causes of DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS enables to determine at once the nature of the disease.

In all cases entrusted to the Doctor's care, PERFECT, SPEEDY and PERMANENT Cures are Always Guaranteed.

Seminal Weakness or Spermatorrhœa.

The young man who experiences that growing weakness in his muscular and mental organization, should stop to consider whence it arises. He will find in the weakness of the back, trembling of the limbs, disordered digestion unaccountable failing of the powers of the mind, distaste for society, dread of impending trouble, forebodings of evil, sleeplessness, troubled and lascivious dreams, accompanied by growing deafness, loss of muscular power, and numerous other symptons of disorganization, the positive traces of that most terrible and destructive of all diseases Seminal Weakness—wasting away his powers, destroying his hope of life and manhood, and dragging him along the broken path of his existence towards a premature and loathsome grave. To him who finds his life dribbling out in the discharge of the vital principle of existence in nocturnal and diurnal emissions, the mere cessation of its appearance brings no assurance of relief.

Marriage, that holy office, the safeguard and hope of manhood, brings to such an one no hope of cure, but adds to his misery in the knowledge that the one who looks to him for so much of her happiness, is a victim to this evil, and an innocent companion of his punishment. He adds to his misery and disorder until hope leaves him. There is no rescue except in proper and skillful treatment. Consult then, at once, a physician whom long practice and careful research has made thoroughly conversant with every phase of the disease. Those who have become the victims of solitary vices, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which fills thousands of sick-rooms with paralytics and consumptives, and hundreds of untimely graves with its misguided victims, should consult, without a moment's delay, one who will sympathize with their sufferings. To such the Doctor would especially address himself, giving to each and all assurance of a PERFECT and PERMANENT CURE, without hindrance to business, change of diet, or fear of exposure.

Do not forget the address. See below.

Important to Females.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease and requires medical or surgical assistance, the enquiry should be, Where is there a physician who is fully competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society recommends him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and beg the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous and designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who will feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation by letter or otherwise, FREE. See address below.

THE CELEBRATED FEMALE REMEDIES, compounded from the private prescription of Dr. Young, have now obtained a most extended popularity, and are correctly viewed to be the safest and surest remedies for the complaints for which they are applied. The constantly accruing testimonials of their efficacy declare them to be pre-eminently superior in their action. No lady should be without these Renovating Agents. DR. PERRAULT'S studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the results of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruit tasted long after-ward; patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptons: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Uretha on going to stool or making water, the Intellectual Faculties are Weakened, Loss of Memory ensues, Ideas are clouded and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writign or the society of friends, etc. The patient will probably complain of Dizziness, Vertigo and that Sight and Hearing are Weakened and sleep disturbed by dreams, melancholy, sighing, palpitations, faintings, coughs and slow fever; while some have exterpal rheumatic pain, bness of the body. Some of the most common symptons are pimples in the face and aching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease, should apply immediately to Dr. PERRAULT, either in person or by letter as he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six to eight weeks.

Patients suffering from venereal diseases in any stage Gonorrhea, Gleet, Strictures, Bubo Ulcers, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., will be treated successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system.

DR. PERRAULT'S diplomas are in his office, where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regularly educated practitioner. The best references given if required.

Patients suffering under chronic diseases, can call and examine for themselves. We invite investigation; claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfil our promises. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctor, and that advertised physician, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us.

Low charges and quick cures. Ladies suffering from any complaint incidental to their sex, can consult the doctor, with the assurance of relief.
